A Message from the Chief of Police

On behalf of the men and women of York Regional Police, I extend a very warm welcome to all the CAPG 2015 Conference delegates.

The theme of this year's conference is Get Connected and there's no better place to do that than York Region. We are one of Canada's most diverse communities and during your time here, we will highlight the wonderful ways our residents experience the different cultures and languages which make up our global community.

We invite you to join us for the four-stop Places of Worship Tour where you will learn about the various religions and cultural traditions that make up the rich tapestry of our region. Join us at the Community Safety Village for Taste of the World, an evening showcasing the delicious traditional foods from different parts of the world, served in several of the mini-buildings that make up the Safety Village.

We are also proud to show off one of the many world-class golf courses our region offers and we look forward to catching up and networking with colleagues and friends during the reception and dinner on Friday night.

Our region, with a population of more than 1.1 million residents, remains among the safest communities in Canada. That is due in large part to the ongoing support of our Police Services Board, Regional Council and our citizens. We hope all delegates have a productive and enjoyable stay.

Yours truly,

Eric Jolliffe, O.O.M., BA, MA, CMM III
Chief of Police
